WELCOME TO MAANISHA!

Maanisha! Foundation is a non-profit media outreach organization that seeks to develop and empower Tanzanian youth to positively change the way they think, perform and present themselves for business success.

Maanisha! operates on the assertion that "only developed people develop nations" and finds it fundamental to first focus on "mindset change" for there to be meaningful impact of formal education in Tanzania. To effect for reaching and sustainable economic impact in Tanzania, Tanzanian youth must first see themselves as victors and take individual

Testimonials

"I met Modesta through reading the articles she used to pen in the Guardian newspaper last year. I found the opinions expressed interesting and asked to meet her. I have been well impressed by the sense of energy and openness to be challenged that the team from PAL brought to the table."

Mbawi Nganzo - GM Mboya Cement

"Modesta and Abella, deliver strong wake up calls to Tanzanians to take control of their own and their country's destinies and to develop professional and personal pride in doing so and in lifting the socioeconomic conditions of the whole populace."

Welcome

Swahili Fashion week is a platform for designers - both fashion and accessory - from Swahili speaking countries to showcase their creativity, market their art and network with their clientele. This is all aimed at promoting fashion as an income generating, job creating industry while emphasizing a "made in East Africa" concept.

Swahili Fashion Week is set to be an annual fashion extravaganza where by both new and veteran designers can showcase their work. Initiating a dynamic and promising platform for the fashion industry in the region, Swahili Fashion Week is geared towards being the most sought out after fashion platform in Eastern Africa for the international market.
